

BULLETIN OF CULTURAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE
AOYAMA GAKUIN WOMEN'S JUNIOR COLLEGE

No. 21 DECEMBER 2013

◆Discipline and Coexistence in Modern Society: Japan, Korea and Okinawa

Preface Tatsuroh WAJIMA

“The Right to Live in Peace” in A Petition concerning the Reversion of Okinawa (1971) : A Constitutional Basis of “Unconditional Total Reversion” Tatsuroh WAJIMA

Manipulative and Trustful Relationships:
Merits and Demerits of “Sensing the Atmosphere of a Situation”
in Kathryn Stockett’s The HELP Shuzo SAITO

Oshiro Tatsuhiro’s Two “Cocktail Parties” : the Political and the Personal under War and Occupation Naoko SUZUKI

Gentle Rule and Subtle Coexistence: Dualism in the Role of English and Student Perspectives Yutaka KUROIWA

Looking for New Relations:
A Study on the Works of Kazue Morisaki in the 1970s Mizuno KOBAYASHI

Tracing the Shadow of Energy “Power”:
A Critical Account of Mitsuharu Inoue’s Anti-Nuclear Literature Yoshihiro TSUJI

◆Research Project in Progress

Comparative Studies on Liberal Arts Education Ayako NAKAI

◆Research Projects [2013]